I,¹ NGUYEN, HUNG PHI of 8 Palmer St, Footscray VIC 3011

make the following declaration under the Statutory Declarations Act 1959:

² Insert the full name of your partner

1. That I have a mutual commitment to a shared life as a husband and wife, to the exclusion of all others, with ² TRUONG, BACH YEN.

³ Insert the full name of your partner

2. That our relationship is genuine and continuing.

⁴ Cross out whichever is in applicable

3. That ³ Truong, Bach Yen and I are living together at the address above.

⁵ Insert number of months or years.

4. That our relationship began in ⁵ March 2019 and we have lived together for ⁶ 4 year 6 months. We got married on 4th January 2020.

⁶ Insert number of months or years.

5. Describe financial commitments you and your partner share, for example joint/individual bank accounts, ownership of property or other major assets, pooling of financial resources and sharing of day to day household expenses.

Currently, Yen has retired, and I have some savings. Occasionally, my children also provide me with money when I visit Vietnam. Therefore, our household expenses primarily come from our saved funds from our younger days. We live comfortably day by day without needing too much money. We only hope for the pandemic to pass so that we can travel together, visit different places, and see our families.

In the future, I hope to secure a stable job to generate additional income for Yen and our future. I aim to sell my land in Vietnam to buy Yen a stable and comfortable home. My only wish is for my wife to remain healthy, sharing a happy old age together.

6. Describe the nature of your household including any joint responsibility for the care and support of children, your living arrangements and sharing of the responsibility for housework.

At home, I can be considered the primary homemaker. Yen's mobility challenges have made it necessary for me to actively participate in caring for our home, tending to the garden, and handling various household tasks. I handle the grocery shopping, cooking, and we clean up together afterward. We don't rigidly divide household tasks but instead flexibly help each other. Sometimes, I take Yen for a walk around the house to breathe in fresh air. During weekends, Yen's children often visit us to spend time with us and we cherish these moments of togetherness. Our household is a reflection of shared responsibilities, love, and adaptability, contributing to a happy and fulfilling life together.

7. Describe the social aspects of your relationship including social activities, attending special events or joint travel you and your partner undertake.

Since we got married in 2020 until now, due to the pandemic and Yen's conditions, our plans to travel together or visit Vietnam have been postponed. Given our age, maintaining health is crucial during this time. Therefore, we mostly stay at home and only go out when necessary, such as for grocery shopping or visiting the family doctor when needed.

8. Describe the nature of your commitment to each other including the degree of companionship and emotional support you draw from each other and whether you see the relationship as a long-term one.

Yen and I have been sharing our lives together for almost five years now. Our commitment is rooted in strong companionship and unwavering emotional supports. I empathized Yen and grew deeply in love with her day by day. Yen's well-being is a top priority to me, and our relationship's goal and commitment is to grow old together.
