

Australian Government

Department of Home Affairs

About this form

This form must be completed by

- knows the visa applicant and the history of their relationship;
- is at least 18 years of age.

The person completing this form must provide evidence of their current name, address, Australian citizenship or Australian permanent residence, and the relationship between them and the visa applicant.

example, a copy of their birth certificate or passport containing a permanent residence stamp. You may be asked to submit up to three photographs during the processing of the visa application. You may also be contacted for further information in relation to the information you have provided.

Purpose of this form

When assessing a Partner or Prospective Partner visa application, the Department of Home Affairs must consider the social aspects of the relationship. The Department will use the information you provide (e.g. financial statements), among other things, to determine whether the relationship is genuine.

How to submit this form

Once completed, the visa application form can be submitted by your representative can attach this form to the relevant section of the Marriage visa application in Immigrant Online.

Warning: The Migration Act 1958 makes it an offence for providing false or misleading information to the Department. Penalties include imprisonment or a fine of AUD30,000.

Important information about personal information handling

The Privacy Act 1988 contains 13 principles which regulate the way that the Department collects, uses and discloses personal information. Information about the Department's privacy handling practices (including forms) can be found in form 1 of the information about the Department's Privacy policy at <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/our-commitments/privacy>.

Home page www.homeaffairs.gov.au

General Telephone 13 22 01

enquiry line in Australia to information available. If you are outside your nearest Australian

Transaction Reference Number

File Number

4 Supporting statement State whether you believe the relationship (partner or fiancé(e)) to be genuine : for your belief in relation to a Partner or visa application

Form

888

Department of Home Affairs

About this form

This form must be completed by a person

knows the visa applicant and their partner;

history of their relationship;

is at least 18 years of age.

The person completing this form must evidence of their current name, age and Australian citizenship or Australian permanent residence (for example, a copy of their birth certificate or passport containing a permanent visa). You may be asked to submit up to 3 separate documents to assist with the processing of the visa application.

If insufficient space, please attach a separate sheet of paper. You may also be contacted for further information in relation to the information you provide.

Purpose of this form

When assessing a Partner or Prospective Parent application, the Department of Home Affairs must consider the social aspects of the application.

Department will use the information p statements), among other things, to asse

How to submit this form

Once completed, the visa applicant or representative can attach this form to th

Marriage visa application in ImmiAcco

Warning: The Migration Act 1958 (the

for providing false or misleading statem imprisonment or a fine of AUD313,00

Important information about privac

The Privacy Act 1988 contains 13 Aus

which regulate the way that the Depart personal information. Information abo personal information. Information about how the Department collects, uses and discloses personal information and the functions can be found in form 1442i Privacy Statement.

Information about the Department's general handling practices (including form 1442i Privacy Statement).

If, insufficient space, please attach a copy of the Department's Privacy policy at

888 (Design date 07/23) - Page 2
<https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/privacy>

